

Table of Contents

I. Introduction.....	4
II. Educational Philosophy	4
III. Objectives	8
A. Nature.....	8
1. Theoretical Aspects.....	9
2. Practical Aspects.....	19
B. Structure	25
1. Teaching.....	25
a. Cognitive Mapping.....	25
b. Student Responses.....	27
c. Chambers.....	32
d. Academia.....	34
e. The Professor.....	64
C. Learning.....	69
1. Collegiate Expectations.....	69
2. Basic Studies.....	70
3. Interaction	73
a. The Effort to Teach and the Effort to Learn.....	73
b. In Case the Professor is Absent:.....	75
c. In Case the Student is Absent:.....	75
d. In Case the Student is Tardy:.....	76
IV. Evaluation.....	78
A. Reviews.....	78
1. Encouragement.....	79
a. Standardized Instruction.....	79
b. Individualized Instruction.....	80
2. Points.....	80
a. Major Reviews.....	80
b. Different Time-frames.....	82
c. Homework.....	83
d. Finalizing the Grades.....	84
e. Directions for Major and Comprehensive Reviews....	89
f. The Student.....	90
g. Freedom to Ask Questions.....	91
V. Assignments.....	92
A. Mandatory.....	99
1. For Each Topic.....	99
a. Written.....	99
b. Oral.....	100
2. For Special Topics.....	102
a. Book.....	102
b. Half sheet.....	102
B. Optional.....	102
1. Analytical paper.....	102
2. Writing Own Multiple-choice Exercises.	115
C. Other.....	115
VI. Conclusion.....	118